Bus Safety and Parent Information

Dear Parents,

For the safety of all, please review the following rules before camp begins. Our staff will also remind the campers of the rules on the bus ride Monday morning.

- Camp Talooli staff reserves the right to change bus stops based on demand
- ALL campers must wear seatbelts while on board the bus
- All campers must remain seated when the bus is moving
- Bus company will provide specific bus safety rules/orientation for campers
- Bus staff will assign seats to any campers who forget bus safety
- Parents will be contacted if we have any problems on the bus
- Repeated behavioral problems could result in your child not being allowed to ride the bus
- No camper will be dropped off at any stop other than the designated stop, unless the parent has sent in written permission and the Camp Director has approved the change
- The staff will load and unload the bus taking attendance each time campers get on/off
- If a parent is not at the stop to pick up the camper at the end of the day, the bus waits five minutes then a staff person gets off the bus to wait with the child. The staff will call the camp and the Camp Director will contact the parents and/or emergency contacts
- NO CAMP TALOOLI STAFF MEMBER CAN TRANSPORT A CAMPER
- Any significant interruption of the bus schedule will be communicated to parents as best as possible and as soon as possible via emergency contacts
