

A happy gathering place for generations.

Keep your child engaged in learning and fun during school breaks!

Camp Talooli is a rustic camp set in the woods surrounding a private lake in Pennellville, NY. For over 65 years, children have fallen in love with our camping programs.

Talooli's school break day camp sessions offer your child the opportunity to make new friends and choose from a range of both indoor and outdoor activities.

Winter Camp

At Camp Talooli's winter camp, children explore our grounds which are blanketed with snow. Campers investigate animal tracks, build snowmen and sled down Talooli's hills. They also warm up indoors while cooking, playing games and completing art projects.

Spring Camp

Let your child welcome the return of robins and wildflowers at Talooli! Spring campers will participate in traditional camp activities like hiking, boating and archery, in addition to a number of indoor activities.

Space is limited— Register early!

Invest in Your Child's Future

Unplugged from modern technology, life at Camp Talooli is rich in opportunities to grow experientially.

At Camp Talooli, children:

- Play and grow up outdoors
- Live in small groups with other children
- Are nurtured by a caring and experienced community of adults

Parents report that when their children return home from Camp Talooli, they:

- Are more caring
- Understand the importance of working as a group and giving to others
- Are more equipped to stand up for what they know is right
- Take on more responsibility
